Bidding Adieu.....

Rekha Sharma, Former Principal, BBPS, Rohini

My Creed

To live as gently as I can;
To be, no matter where, a man;
To take what comes of good or ill
And cling to faith and honor still;
To do my best, and let that stand
The record of my brain and hand;
And then, should failure come to me,
Still work and hope for victory.
To have no secret place wherein
I stoop unseen to shame or sin;
To be the same when I'm alone
As when my every deed is known;
To live undaunted, unafraid
Of any step that I have made;
To be without pretense or sham
Exactly what men think I am.
To leave some simple mark behind
To keep my having lived in mind;
If enmity to aught I show,
To be an honest, generous foe,
To play my little part, nor whine
That greater honors are not mine.
This, I believe, is all I need
For my philosophy and creed.

Edgar Albert Guest

Dear All,

This is to bid formal goodbye as Principal to all of you who have been my fellow travellers in this memorable journey of over 19 years. Nostalgia is the emotion of the moment as I look back at the path I have traversed. True, it has been a roller coaster ride but the thrill remains. I have enjoyed every moment, taken everything in my stride and reached a point where the joy of achievement is far greater than any sense of closure. With you and your association, every moment has been fruitful and full of joy. I complete a voyage which has been sacred to me; which has kept me connected to 'the best in life'. I lay down the office of the Principal of Bal Bharati, Rohini after almost 20 years with a deep sense of satisfaction and pride. These years have been joyous, rewarding and full of hard work, achievements and awards.

When I look back at this period, it seems but yesterday that I took a few hesitant steps into these haloed premises and the rest as they say is history. Friends, I have nurtured this Institution and brought it to the present glorious point with the help of my wonderful Management, hardworking teachers, my laborious helpers and my affectionate children. Today, as I hand over the reins to the new Principal Ms. Geeta Gangwani, I have no words except a prayer on my lips.

"Dear God, let this Institution rise to greater heights and let all within live happily"

With warmest regards

REKHA SHARMA
