ABOUT THE SOCIETY

Child Education Society, the apex body of Bal Bharati Public Schools and other institutions of higher education, was constituted in 1944 during the Pre Independence era when the architects of CES envisioned a free India in which Indian culture, heritage, traditions and ethos are cherished and nurtured. The society was registered under the Registration of Societies Act, 1860. Since its inception, CES has been the flag bearer and pioneer in ensuring Quality Education for all sections of society. Today, the affairs of the Society are managed by the Board of Management which comprises of illustrious figures in the domain of education and social workers. It is headed by visionary Shri Nikhil Channa, an eminent educationist and a social entrepreneur. 3 Training Institutions, 11 core Schools with 2 more to come up in near future, 2 Nursery Schools, 2 Management Agreement Schools and 7 Project Schools in collaboration with National Thermal Power Corporations (NTPC) and the Indian Railways are running under the aegis of CES and the empowering leadership of Shri Channa. Bal Bharati Public Schools are co-educational English medium schools and provide all the modern facilities and multifarious opportunities to its students.

Shri Nikhil Channa
